Regina Zortman Chihak lives in La Crescent, Minnesota, and attended music school at the University of Northern Iowa. She was a flute major in college where her theory teacher was also the harp professor and first introduced her to the harp. Regina entered the harp world when her children were grown and now belongs to a marvelous harp circle who motivate her to create arrangements for them. She credits her husband, who was the harp professor's graduate assistant, with helping her learn Finale.
