Kitty Magennis

Turlough O'Carolan

arranged for double-strung harp by Thom Dutton

Thom Dutton studied piano and voice before discovering the harp. Thom performs throughout New England, and spent three years touring Ireland with the group The Healys. He has several recordings and numerous published arrangements of harp music. He is also a certified music practitioner.

© 2021 Cape Side Music

This arrangement for double-strung harp is from Cape Side Music's publication, A Dozen Doubles. For more information, please email capesidemusic@comcast.net or go to CapeSideMusic.com.

Cape Side Music

Celtic & Classical Arrangements
Harp Duets & Trios
Healing Music
Christmas Music
Wedding Music
Harp & Handbells
Harp & Voice

www.capesidemusic.com
capesidemusic@comcast.net

Make your Music Matter

Are you a musician with a compassionate heart, ready to learn how to use therapeutic music to serve the ill and dying patient at the bedside?

Bring the healing nature of music to those in need through the Music for Healing & Transition Program™. Join with other musicians, in our live, virtual, science-based training and certification classes.

Sheila Gioia, CMP, plays for a patient in Parker Adventist Hospital, Denver, Colorado

Become a Certified Music Practitioner (CMP)®
Learn more, start your journey: www.mhtp.org

*Check out MHTP's October 14th Enrichment Day at our website and earn graduate CEUs.

Experience what it means to be a Certified Music Practitioner. Scan the QR code or go to our website to watch short videos.

MHTP is accredited by the National Standards Board for Therapeutic Musicians

mhtp
The Music for Healing & Transition Program
833.267.6487 • mhtp@mhtp.org
Serving patients, enhancing healthcare