This Chinese song was composed by Weng Ching-hsi, with lyrics by Sun Yi. The tune is one of the first love songs in China and was popular in the 1970s. In the Chinese culture, the moon is seen as a constant.

You ask how deep my love for you is,
How much I really love you.
My affection is real. The moon represents my heart.
My affection does not waiver. My love will not change.
Just one kiss is enough to move my heart.
You ask how deep is my love for you, go think about it.
Go and have a look [at the moon].
The moon represents my heart.
